NEW Required Agency Policies (AKA “model policies”) MN Rules 6700.1515

New Required Agency Policy: The Public Assembly/First Amendment Activity Model Policy is now a required policy, and each agency must adopt an agency policy identical or substantially similar provisions as the POST approved model policy.

CLEO Responsibilities: The CLEO is responsible for the distribution, posting, and training on all of the required policies and must ensure that:

- The current version of each required policy is posted on the agency’s website (for agencies without a website, policies must be posted in the public area of the physical premises)
- a copy of a required policy is provided on request to anyone requesting a policy;
- a copy of each required policy is provided to each officer on the agency roster;
- policies are reviewed annually with each officer;
- policies are enforced at all levels of the agency;
- violations of a required policy by an officer are reported to POST;
- the policy and training compliance form is submitted to POST by March first of each year.
